Lets say the dot products documents are
- $\langle d1 \; q \rangle = V$
- $\langle d1' \; q \rangle = V'$

Clearly V' > V (if we are just considering the scalar product of the two vectors)